

The New York Public Library and the Mystery Writers of America New York Chapter Present

NEW YORK, NEW YORK: It's A Helluva Town To Die In

THURSDAY, MARCH 11 • 2010 @ 6:00PM
COUNTEE CULLEN LIBRARY
104 West 136th St. NY, NY 10030

What does it mean to die in Harlem? On the Bowery? On the Upper East Side?
Do the dead get treated differently depending on whether they're rich or poor?
People of color, white working class, or WASP?

New York City is a kaleidoscope of worlds that may or may not interconnect except when murder strikes.

The gritty world of NYPD, the art world, the Harlem Renaissance, and the church basements of AA are all grist to the mystery writer's mill.

MODERATOR:

ELIZABETH ZELVIN

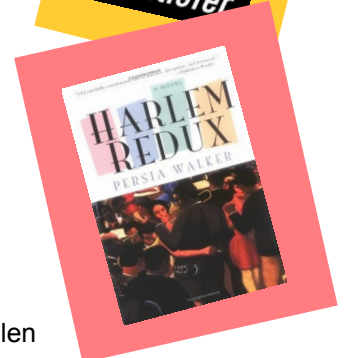

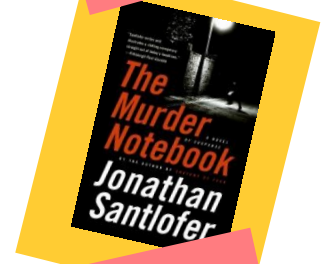

is a psychotherapist whose mysteries feature recovering alcoholic Bruce Kohler and his friends. Death Will Help You Leave Him, about addictive and abusive relationships, is in stores now. The series started with Death Will Get You Sober and includes three published short stories, one nominated for an Agatha award. Liz has directed alcohol programs on the Bowery and Coney Island and treated clients in East Harlem and the Bronx.

FEATURED AUTHORS:

GRACE F. EDWARDS

JONATHAN SANTLOFER

PERSIA WALKER

New York Public Library

This branch is fully accessible to wheelchairs

Mystery Writers of America

New York Chapter